GREEN

Lester Hathaway Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Green, was born in Sidney Jan. 22, 1903.

When 12 years of age, during the evangelistic services conducted by Dr. Oliver, he gave his heart to God, and later joined the church under the pastorate of Dr. Armington. Thus early in life before the evil days come not, he was nurtured in Christian living, which he exemplified in the Sunday school as a mebmer of the "Gymnasium Class," in the Epworth League as a faithful attendant and in the Y. M. G. A. as an enthusiastic worker.

He enjoyed his church activities and was always present when his health permitted him to do so. In High school as president of the Junior class and as captain of the foot ball team, he was loved by all. On Sunday Feb. 20 after a several months illness, at the age of 18 years, he passed to where there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.

A father, a mother, a sister Katharine, a brother Othel, two grandmothers, Mrs. Bell Hathaway and Mrs. Katharine Green, beside a host of friends and relatives survive him.

We cannot say, and will not say,
That Lester is dead—He is just away.
With a cherry smile, and a wave of the hand, he has wandered into an unknown land.
Think of him faring on, as dear in the love of There as in the love of Here,
Think of him still as the same,
He is not dead—he is just away.

HATHAWAY

In the passing of Mrs. Margaret Isabelle Hathaway, one of our oldest and most beloved citizens has gone to her reward.

On Thursday evening Jan 24 as the day was closing, her spirit winged its flight to her Heavenly Father.

For eighty years she was permitted to live among us. She being the daughter of Christian parents, Rev. David and Catherine Rhinehart, it was not difficult for her to adapt herself to the livelihood of being a minister's wife that of Rev. D. H. Hathaway, who preceded her, to the spirit word Feb 4 1912.

She was united in marriage with Rev. Hathaway Dec 28 1870.

This union was blessed with six children, one dying in infancy.

The family so sorely bereft are the remaining children, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Alonzo Shaw, Misses Adda and Laura Hathaway of Sidney Mr. Ernest Hathaway of Tippecanoe City Ohio also a sister Mrs. M. K. Coon of Hardin. Ten grand children and five great grand children.

Mrs. Hathaway was a faithful and life time member of the M. E. Church. Always being of great service in all of its activities until her health failed.

She was also a member of the W. C. T. U. organization and of the Neal Relief Corps.

Mrs. Hathaway had many friends who esteemed her highly for her work's sake, because hers was a life marked by unselfish service for others.

She thought not of herself and of her own pleasure but of those whom she loved and whom she might help.

Our Saviour once said, If any would be chief among you let him be as a servant. If any would be great let him be him be servant of all.

Judged by this standard, our sister was one of the great ones of earth, for she gave her life in service for others.

She loved her home and family, her friends and her Lord.

Such a life can not die. It will live on in the good influence it has exerted, in the good deeds it has wrought in the memory of those she loved and will live on too, we believe consciously in our Father's house, where there are many dwelling places.

She rests from her labors but her works follow her.

"I can not say and I will not say.
That she is dead she is just away
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land ,
And left us dreaming; how very fair
Needs must be since she lingers there
You — O you who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return,
Think of her as faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here;
Think of her still as the same I say
She is not dead, she is just away."

THE DEATH OF LESTER GREEN

PASSED AWAY AT THE HOME OF HIS PARENTS SUNDAY

Many hearts were saddened Sunday when the report of the death of Lester H Green quickly passed through the city. He died about two oclock at his home on Clinton avenue after an illness extending over a period of seven weeks.

About a year ago he had suffered a severe attack of tonsilitis which resulted in an extended illness of infleminatory rheumatism which left him with a leak heart. At this timfe he was ill from January to May, but he recoverd sufficiently to be able to resume his studies at school.

He attended school until Christmas when was it feared he would have another attack of inflammatory rheumatism and he had his tonsils removed early in January. He recoverd from the operation nicely but other complications set in and his death Sunday was due to heart trouble.

He was a boy of lovable disposition having a large circle of friends, he was popular in school being president of the Junior class and manager of the Foot ball team last year. He took a great interest in all things athletic.

In all his sickness and suffering he was always patent and uncomplaining

Lester Hathaway Green was born January 22 1903 the son of Mr and Mrs Roy Green who with one brother and one sister, Katherine survive him

He leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Funeral services will be held at the M E Church Wednesday morning at 10 oclock.

ROY GREEN, FORMER SIDNEY RESIDENT, PASSES AWAY

HEALTH HAD BEEN FAILING FOR MONTHS

Formerly Operated Battery Shop In This City

MOVED TO TROY TWO YEARS AGO

Funeral Services Sunday Afternoon From Son's Home

Relatives and friends were grieved Friday when announcement was made of the death of Roy G. Green, of Troy, formerly a prominent resident of this city, who passed away early Friday morning at the Stouder Hospital in Troy.

The condition of Mr. Green had been serious for the past week when peritonitis developed following an abdominal operation performed on Tuesday, June 13th. However his friends were hopeful for his recovery and the message telling of his death was a sad shock.

Mr. Green had spent the greater part of his life in Sidney and for twelve years was associated with the business life of the city. He conducted the Green Battery Service, the business located at the coroner of North and Main avenue. For sixteen years previous to opening the service station he was the efficient engineer at the plant of the former Hickok Candy Company.

Two years ago he moved from Sidney when he accepted the position of engineer for the Miami County Children's Home at Troy, Mrs. Green accompanying him there and accepting the position as matron over the boys at the Home.

The deceased had been in failing health since he suffered an attack of influenza in January and when his condition became more severe a few weeks ago, he submitted to an operation with the hope of regaining his health.

Roy G. Green was born on October 24, 1874, in Anna and was a son of the late William and Katherine Harriet Green. He was the last of that family to pass away, his only sister, Mrs. Dasiy Fox, of Dayton, passing away several years ago.

He was united in marriage with Miss Bessie Hathaway of this city on December 31, 1899, and three children were born to their union, two of whom survive with his widow, Mrs. Katherine Green White of Detroit, Mich., and Othel L. Green of this city. One son, Lester, died a number of years ago. Five grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Green possessed an admirable character and was held in the highest esteem by his many friends and business associates. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and Sunday School, serving in various capacities with the Sidney church while a resident here and on moving to Miami county transferred his membership to the Methodist Church at Casstown.

The remains were removed from Stouder hosptial to the O. B. Taylor Funeral Home and Saturday noon will be removed to the home of his son, Othel L. Green at 615 East Johnston Drive, where friends may call anytime Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday morning.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Green home at two-thirty o'clock Sunday afternoon by Rev. Barker of Casstown. Burial will be made at Graceland cemetery.

MRS. ROY GREEN SUFFERS STROKE, DIES SUDDENLY

One of the Best Known Residents of Sidney. Funeral Services Monday Afternoon

The sudden death of Mrs. Bessie Hathaway Green, 54, widow of Roy L. Green, which occurred at eight o'clock Friday evening, was a sad shock to the community.

Mrs. Green was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage about ten o'clock Friday morning at the home of J. F. and Miss Elizabeth Russell on North West ave, where she was a nurse. Her condition remained serious throughout the day and during the evening she was removed to the Wilson Memorial Hospital. She died about fifteen minutes after being admitted there.

The deceased was one of the best known and beloved residents of Sidney and until the past few years had always made her home here. She was the daughter of the late Rev. G. W. and Isabell Hathaway, and was born in Shelby county on April 2, 1880. Her father was a minister in the M. E. Church, his pastorates including several churches in this county.

She was united in marriage with the late Roy L. Green, who preceded her in death by eighteen months. He was a former Sidney business man, and the family resided here until a few years before his death. They located in Casstown, later going to Troy where he was an engineer at the Troy Children's Home, and Mrs. Green was the matron over the boys of that home. Following his death a year ago last June, she resigned and spent the greater part of her time with her two children Othel L. Green, of this city, and Mrs. W. H. White, of Detroit, Mich. Last fall she returned to Sidney from Detroit to do practical nursing at the Russell home.

Mrs. Green was a faithful member of the M. E. church and Sunday school and a member of several of the women's organizations of the church. She was also a member of the Medley club; of the Susan Mercer Warwick Tent, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, and of the W. C. T. U.

Surviving with her son and daughter are, three sisters, Miss Laura Hathaway, Miss Addie Hathaway, Mrs. A. E. Shaw, one brother, E. L. Hathaway, of Tippecanoe City, and five grand children, Beth Ann, Jack and Lester Green, Sidney, Bobbie and Billy White of Detroit, Mich.

Funeral services held Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the home of her son, Othel Green, Johnston Drive, and interment made in Graceland cemetery.

Friends may call at the home at anytime.

D. U. V. Meeting Friday
Memorial for Mrs. Green Given.

The Daughters of Union Veterans held their regular meeting Friday evening in the D. of I. hall. The president Mrs. Howard Grant presided.

During the opening exercises a beautiful memorial service was held for Mrs. Bessie Green, the chaplin Mrs. Sargeant accompanied by the color bearers placed a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and draped the charter in her memory. Mrs. Green was a charter member of Susan Mercer Warwick Tent 107 Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War. 1861-1865. and was a member of their first council. Mrs. Kay Williams read the following memorial:

"Once again the grim Reaper has entered our midst and taken from us one whom we all loved and respected, one whom we were all proud to call our friend. Sister Green was a loyal member, a willing worker, a true patriot, and a Christian woman. As a charter member of Susan Mercer Warwick Tent, she took an active and worthwhile part in our organization. Her passing we all regret very deeply.

"To the bereaved family we extend our heartfelt sympathy. We feel that our burdens have been made lighter and our joys sweeter by having had her with us. May our fond recollections and pleasant remembrances of her enthusiasm be an inspiration to us to carry on."

Mrs. Elmer Snyder sweetly sang "Lead Kindly Light" accompanied by Mrs. I. W. Hedges.

The visiting committee with Mrs. Charles Richards as chairman, reported a large number of visits to comrades and widows, the distribution of gifts to comrades. Christmas Greeting cards sent to the widows and flowers to the sick and bereaved. A number of those remembered sent cards to thank the Daughters for their remembrance.

Plans were made for the Installation dinner to be held at the Methodist church Friday evening Jan. 11th at 6:30 sharp. The Dayton, Greenville, Lima and Piqua Tents will be invited.

After the dinner the meeting will be held in the D. of I. hall. There will be initiation of two members and the officers for 1935 will be installed by Mrs. W. F. Bowner, president of the Eighth District, Ohio Dept. D. U. V. of Norwood, O.

Another of the comrades has passed on and the Daughters will assist at the military funeral of John Baker to be held at the Kerr Mortuary at four o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Dear Ones:

I am sorry I took so long getting the information you wanted + I did not do so good anyway. Miriam is not well + I hated to bug her about the adoption records. I know Mark was 18 months old when they finally got him from Zaire. They started the proceedings when he was 7 months old. Beth was one month old when they got her, Miriam does not know if Mark is dead or alive + Scott has caused her problems since his Dad died.

I have had only 3 calls on my house. People want a garage + Florida room + there are quite a large number of houses for sale.

I am doing O.K. I have slowed down but I walk without a cane. I can drive - thank goodness.

I am going to a church meeting today. It is a pot luck before the meeting so I have to fix a dish.

We still have rain + heat here. I am looking forward to winter but then I don't like the cooler darkness. Never satisfied.

Take care,

Love you,
Aunt Katie

Dear Ones:

I was so sorry I could not see you when you came to Florida. It was too late for me to get out of working & I had a couple coming in from Vero Beach late that day to stay a couple of days. Do try again & let me know ahead of time so I will not be busy. I am not always that tied up. I do try to keep busy though.

My cousin Bill Fox sent three drawings to me last month. He said he was cleaning house & found them. Sister had given them to him years ago. Probably 1917 or 1918. Sister was quite an artist & he drew sketches for the local paper. Bill Fox is my Dads sister boy. He lived with us for a short time after his mother died. I am glad Sister signed one of them.

It was so good being with Beth, Bud, Jack + Esperanza. They were a lot of fun. Glad they got home safely + enjoyed the cruise.

I would love to see you. Do by again.

Love you,

Aunt Kate

Aunt Katie - O.L.H. - Austin

CATHERINE GREEN

CATHERINE GREEN was a Junior Life Guards of Sidney (Ohio) Home Guards. Catherine is now a Queen Esther girl but was formerly a faithful worker in the Home Guards, and her mother who is also an active home missionary worker has made her a Junior Life Member.

"WHILE the dew of life still glistens on the flow'r,
While yet the day is bright and new,
Let us be about the labor of the hour,
Doing what there is to do."

Dear Auntie "Catie",

It was so nice talking to you today! Here are the pictures I said I would send.

We really had a lovely visit in Mexico! Bonnie + family all okay, busy with school, work + she with keeping everyone where they should be going.

Dave + Barb in Fla. as I told you - heading home Sat. A.M.

We have been busy - mowing, weed, golf, cards - dinner with friends over

Prelude — Helen Potter, Pianist

Greeting

Hymn — "In The Garden"

I come to the garden alone, While the dew is still on the roses,
And the voice I hear, Falling on my ear, The Son of God discloses.

Refrain: And He walks with me, and He talks with me,
And He tells me I am His own;
And the joy we share as we tarry there, None other has ever known.

He speaks, and the sound of His voice
Is so sweet the birds hush their singing,
And the melody That He gave to me, Within my heart is ringing.

Refrain:

I'd stay in the garden with Him
Though the night around me be falling, But He bids me go;
Through the voice of woe His voice to me is calling.

Refrain:

Commendation

Hymn — "How Great Thou Art"

O, Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed;

Refrain: Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing, Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;

Refrain:

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration,
And there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!

Refrain:

Dear Catharine;

I want to thank you so much for the picture and the information you have given me. Yes, my father was married late in life, and was only married 10 yrs. when he died. I was only 9 yrs. old. He died 2 days after Xmas, and my mother died the day before Thanksgiving, in 1965. I am finding that quite a few of the Green's married late in life, including myself. My mother was 34 when she got married, and I always said if I wasen't married by the time I was 30 I would never get married. I ate those words, I was 40. My mother never got to see me married. She died in Nov. and I was married the following April. Yes, aunt Gertrude had a son Marvin. He is 50 and I am 51. He has been married for sometime. He has three boys. One is married and has two chil* dren, and the other two are younger. The youngest is 10. They had them so far apart it was like raising three families. I see them occassonialy but we were never close. They live around Dunn

I went to the Swanders cemetery but could not find any Green's. However I found some in the Fletcher cemetery. Justin and his wife Emma, Harry and his wife Elnora and their infant son. I presume you didn't have any dates on your grand- father. I have them but just wanted to check them out. He was 59 when he died. I wrote to Lester's wife. I am hoping that she is interested in the family tree and can give me a lot of information I don't have. Now that I have quite work I can devote more time to it. I am a beautician and worked at it for 30 yrs. I quite a year ago and I am really enjoying my retirement. I kept the shop and I have three girls working.

I was in Florida for three weeks this winter. My husband teaches school and only had 10 days off, so I drove down early and he flew down. I was in Fort Lauderdale would love to have looked you up. You also have some relation living in Dunedin. Mrs. Christy Metcalf ,Harry Green's daughter Emerson Green's granddaughter. ~~Harry~~ Hugh (Green) Boop he was adopted by the Boop's (Emerson Green's son) also lives in Dunedin, Florida. We go down to St. Pete every Xmas. Before I close did you ever know that my fathers name was changed from Benjamin H. to Harrison Andrew? I found this in the court house.

It was nice hearing from you and thanks again.

Bernadine

March 8, 1977

Dear Mrs. Cassidy;

I am Bernadine (Green) Edgington, some of your relation you probably never heard of. Anyway I am looking up the Green Family Tree. Iwas to see your sister Fern Glass recently, and she gave me quite a lot of information, but refered me to you for some more. I would like full names and dates concerning your own immediate family. I would like your childrens names, birth dates, ~~marrage dates, madian names~~, marriage dates, maiden names, husbands names, and birthdays. Grand childrens names and birthdays. and on down the line if any of them are married. I would also like you and your husbands birthdays nad marriage dates. If you have any other brothers or sisters I would like any information you can give me on them.

I never knew any thing about my fathers people and had always wanted to look them up. I didn't know so many of them lived so close by, until I started this. I do remember my mother speaking of Fern Glass. I am Harrison Green's daughter. My grandfather was Alfred Green. I do hope to hear from you soon. Thank you .

Sincerely,

Bernadine Edgington

"Old Hamilton County

Dates of Beginning for Hamilton County and Its Townships and Some Little Known History of "Old" Hamilton County

In studying these early rosters, the researcher may find it helpful to know something of the dates of Hamilton County's beginnings. Understanding the order of formation of the early settlements and townships gives one an idea of the time frame to which each list applies.

The first three settlements in what was to become Hamilton County were situated in spots along the Ohio River. They were: Columbia, near the mouth of the Little Miami, founded Nov. 18, 1788; Losantiville, soon to be renamed Cincinnati, opposite the mouth of the Licking, December 28, 1788; and North Bend, 16 miles downstream from Cincinnati, and 4 miles up from the mouth of the Great Miami, February 2, 1789.

The region lay in what was known as the Miami (or Symmes) Purchase, a large grant of land lying between the two Miamis in the Northwest Territory, the latter created in 1787.

Hamilton County, the second county to be formed in the Northwest Territory, was organized January 4, 1790. It was named for Alexander Hamilton, then Secretary of the Treasury, the honor of selecting the name given to Judge John Cleves Symmes, patentee of the Miami Purchase. Hamilton County originally took in a vast area of roughly 5,000 square miles in the southwestern corner of what later was to be the state of Ohio.

Generally speaking, early, or "old", Hamilton County (c.1790-1800) extended from the Scioto River on the east, to Dayton on the north, to the Ohio River on the south, and to the Indian Treaty Boundary Line on the west. This latter western boundary included a triangular tract in what became southeastern Indiana, a strip known as "the gore." By the time Ohio was organized as a state, March 1, 1803, Hamilton County had been vastly reduced in size.

Fort Washington was built at Cincinnati in late 1789 and dedicated January 2, 1790. It stood just beyond the eastern edge of the little town settlement. The presence of Fort Washington figured largely in Hamilton County history. In 1804 its garrison was moved cross river to Newport and in 1809 the fort dismantled. Numerous names of soldiers and officers appear on these early rosters; no doubt many were stationed at Fort Washington.

During Hamilton County's pioneer period a number of townships were established. The first townships took in large areas but as population increased they were cut down in size and from them new townships formed. Some of the early Hamilton County townships lay in what later became parts of newer adjoining counties. For several townships exact time of erection and dissolution is uncertain. The townships of Fulton, Spencer and Storrs were among the earliest to be annexed to Cincinnati; they have lost some measure of identity.

Since little has been recorded on pioneer Hamilton County townships (c. 1790-1802), information under the heading of "Old" Hamilton County has been included for the researcher's benefit.

Fort Washington was built at Cincinnati in late 1789 and dedicated January 2, 1790. It stood just beyond the eastern edge of the little town settlement. The presence of Fort Washington figured largely in Hamilton County history. In 1808 its garrison was moved across river to Newport and in 1809 the fort dismantled. Numerous names of soldiers and officers appear on these early records; no doubt many were stationed at Fort Washington.

During Hamilton County's pioneer period a number of townships were established. The first townships took in large areas but as population increased, they were cut down in size and from them new townships formed. Some of the early Hamilton County townships lay in what became parts of newer adjoining counties. For several township exact time of erection and dissolution is uncertain. The townships of Fulton, Spencer and Storrs were among the earliest to be annexed to Cincinnati; they have long since passed of identity.

Since little has been recorded on pioneer Hamilton County township (c. 1790-1802), information under the heading of "Old" Hamilton County has been included for the researcher's benefit.

Dear Ones:

Sorry I didn't get to see you when you came to Florida this year. Hope you get down again. I would love to see you.

Bill's wife Diane moved to Sacramento & took her daughter, Holly husband & daughter with her. They had lived there about seven years before they moved to Spokane. I went down to see them in Aug. to celebrate my great grand daughters first birthday. She is a doll. Diane is happier there. She didn't like Spokane I was in N.Y. twice this year too. Now I will stay put for awhile.

Thanks for your card. Your family sure is growing.

Have fun at christmas.

Love,
Aunt Katie

Mr. Reuben Clayton

83a SAMUEL F.R.- was of Puritan descent, born in Piscataway, Middlesex County N.J. Oct. 1737. He served in the Revolutionary War as Ensign in the Second Regiment of Militia, Sussex County, N.J. After the war he became interested in land in Pennsylvania probably due to the influence of Maj. Benj Stites of Redstone, Pa.(Fayette County), who in 1786 visited Congress in New York to buy land in Ohio. On Apr. 16,1785, Samuel purchased from Mary Hodgson 300 acres of land on Yellow Creek in Armstrong Twp. in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania and went there to live between Nov.21,1785 and Nov. 26, 1790. He also purchased 800 acres virgin forest from Robebt Martin in Northumberland County, Pa. While a resident of Fayette County, Pa., he also bought 266½ acres of land in Virginia(now Harrison County W. Va.) in which he later under a charter of Dec. 19, 1794 from the Virginia Legislature platted the town of New Salem(now Salem) which according to tradition says Corliss Fitz Randolph, was so named from Salem, N.J. to which Samuel and the Shrewsbury Church were connected by family ties. While he and his wife Mary,( his cousin, and the daughter of David F.R.) were residents of Fayette County, Pa. they were two of the four constituent members of the Seventh Day Baptist Church at Woodbridgetown, in Georges Township, when that church was organized Nov. 8, 1789. He left Woodbridgetown sometime after May 10, 1792 for the new home in Virginia. In New Salem he also gave the land for the S.D.B. church and cemetery lots. He was ardently active in S.D.Baptist Church affairs,representing the New Salem Church in 1794 at a business meeting at West Fork River Church and contributing to missionary work

83a7 JONATHAN F. R. was born Mar. 20,1775 at[illegible]
He married Mary E. the daughter of William (Greenbrier Billy) and Elizabeth(Johnson)Davis. He came to New Salem from Fayette County, Pa. with his father. He was active in Seventh Day Baptist Church affairs and often held fasting and prayers in his home. He was a Deacon in the New Salem Church 1833-1844 and helped supervise the new record book of the NewSalem church when it was compiled in 1832. When New Salem was organized and the civil courts gradually took over minor litigations previously settled by the church, Jonathan was one of the first Justices of the Peace.

83a72 WILLIAM F. R. * was born at New Salem, Va. Dec. 9, 1800 and at an early age became identified with the Seventh Day Baptist Church, joining the New Salem Church May 15, 1819 and was appointed a Deacon Feb. 20, 1824. On Aug. 12, 1823 he married Mary B. Davis the daughter of William and Elizabeth Davis, and who was the mother of his twelve children. On account of a lawsuit before Justice of the Peace Nathan Davis in which William, and Joshua G Davis were involved, Joshua at the May 20, 1831 New Salem Church meeting preferred charges of some sort against William and the church investigating committee dismissed all but one of the charges and reported an apology due from William which, however, he declined to make. A debarrment from communion and excommunication followed after which William apparently satisfying the church was restored to membership but when he requested the committee to clarify the records, they in 1838 reported that they believed he was found guilty of "something indefinable" as they could not ascertain the nature of the complaint. This dispute and the fight of William, ~~carried~~ pleading the records, carried to the South Western Association meeting in 1843, rocked the New Salem Church, and created differences between that church and the Lost Creek Church which William had joined on March 8, 1840. In the meantime there had been a finding that he never had been excommunicated in 1831 and the S.W.Assn/voted in 1845 to burn all records pertaining to the disagreement. This trouble did not impair William's church activities for in 1841 he surveyed the lot for the meeting house on Greenbrier Run. In March 1855 William was instructed by the Lost Creek Church to make an abridged transcript of the church records which he did during the winters of 1855-6-7 in a very thorough and credible manner. He was Secy. for the 4th Annual Convention of the S.W.Assn at Port Jefferson, Ohio in 1842 and the 11th Annual Conv. at Lost Creek in 1849. He advocated an academy among S.D.B. churches and was the leading spirit as well as Secy. to the committee and on the committee to secure the charter for West Union Academy and held the largest amount of stock in the Academy. He opposed slavery and sent the resolution from his church to the association voicing those views. His first wife died in 1854 at the age of fifty and he then married in 1855 Rachel Bond who was a wonderfully kind step-mother to his children

83a78- JEPTHA F.R. was born Nov. 18, 1814 at _____ and on _____ 1836 married Deborah Sutton the daughter of _____. He was a Seventh Day Baptist and took an active part in the affairs of the New Salem Church, being appointed Deacon Nov. 7, 1855, acting on the Ways & Means committee, acting as Moderator, pro tem, and holding the office of Clerk from 1836 to 1843. He donated half of the church lot for the Middle Island
Church. He was a trustee of the West Union Academy; held 31 1/3 shares of stock and took over the assets of the academy when it was dissolved in 1863 . he died at _____ on July 19,1879 and is buried in _____
He moved to New Milton, Wis in 1845 but returned within a year and was on the building committee of the Middle Island Church. He led the monthly services of the New Salem Church and was a delegate from there to consider the Ritchie Church organization. He was Secretary to the 1st, 2nd,3rd & 4th Annual Sessions of the Virginia Association and Secretary to the S.E. Association sessions in 1873 and 1875

"The firts congregation in New Jersey of Seventh Day Baptists was gathered in Piscataway. The first members were originally the regular Baptist Society, the first Association being formed in April, 1707, although they held religious services two years earlier. The cause of the seces ion is stated by Edwards to have been owing to Mr Edmond Dunhams' admonishing Hezekiah Bonham for doing some servile work on Sunday, when Bonham required of him proof that the first day of the week was holy by divine institution. This Mr Dunham could not do to his own satisfaction, after duly examining the point, and he consequently renounced the observance of the first in favor of the seventh day of the week: receiving the fourth commandment as an unchangeble law. This was about the year 1700 or 1701."

note
"The signers to the agreement were Edmond Dunham, Mary Dunham, Benjamin Dunham, Dorothy Dunham, John Fitz Randolph, Sarah Fitz Randolph, Elizabeth Fitz Randolph, Benjamin Martin, Margaret Martin, Jonathan Martin, Hannah Martin, Hugh Dunn, Samuel Dunn, Hester Dunn, Joseph Dunn, and Gershom Hull; and subsequently individuals from the families of the Dottas, Cummins. Wooders, Smalleys, Algers, Chandlers etc Edwards pg. 130. at the time he wrote in 1789 the congregation numbered 100"

(From Preston F Randolph's papers)

The biographical sketches here given were written upon the suggestion of Rev A J C Bond, pastor of the Salem W Va church of which the subject of these sketches was a member

Preston F Randolph the son of William F Randolph, was born Nov 19, 1836 on a farm owned by his father on greenbrier run in what was then Harrison County, but by a later division is now in Doddridge County,

Samuel Fitzrandolph(the name was thus written at that time) the great grandfather of Preston, came here from Salem N J, prior to its settlement and then went to Morgantown the county seat and purchased a large extent of land here which he named New Salem. In the year of 1792 he with many others of like religious faith, came and settled on his purchase. Samuel had two sons, Jesse and Jonathan, then minors, about eighteen and twenty years of age when they came. In course of time jonathan had six sons and three daughters. Of these children William was the oldest, born Dec. 21, 1800. When about nineteen years of age he was baptized and received into the New Salem Seventh Day Baptist Church by Elder Amos R Wells then on a missionary tour to western Virginia. On aug. 12, 1823, William married Mary Bond Davis, the daughter of Elder John Davis, the brother or Elder Lewis A Davis who became somewhat noted as missionary in western Virginia and Ohio. While living in a small log cabin on his land on Greenbrier run William built a neat two story hewed log house near his cabin, for his father-in-law. In this house Elder John Davis spent his declining years tenderly cared for by his son-in-law and daughter. The house after the father-in-law was gone and William had moved to his farm a mile lower was used mainly for school purposes. William first employed a Mr. Condem from Ohio, boarding him and his wife and keeping his horse, and later William also taught there himself. The hewed logs of that house may yet be seen in a barn or stable near the residence of the late Dea. Jesse Clark. William also taught in his kitchen when Preston was eight years old. William and his brother Samuel Prestpn were mainly instrumental in organizing Doddridge County. William held a number of important offices He was Justice of The Peace for many years, official surveyor, locating many roads, never allowing any to be steeper than five degrees and he surveyed many pieces of land for his neighbors and others. He was a appointed by the Governor, a state director of the Salem and Harrisville turnpike, the state paying two-fifths of its stock, and he was quite instrumental in locating and grading the road. He held the office of County Commissioner which by the laws of Virginia entitled him to become the next sheriff of the county but just at that time the law was changed.

To William and Mary, the parents of Preston F Randolph, twelve children , seven sons and five daughters, were born in the following order, viz: Harriett who married Richard Ford and raised a family of eight children. She was born Feb. 2, 1826. Waldo born June 2, 1827. Died April 11, 1863. These two Harriett and Waldo, the oldest children inherited from their mother excellent musical talents. The mother was often called upon to lead the singing in public services and always in singing a hymn in the evening family devotions. Waldo was a bright intelligent youth who during an epidemic of malignant scarlet fever became subject to epilepsy which gradually weakened his mind. For the want of public schools, he taught four younger brothers to spell and read, using Noah Webster's blue-black "Elementary Spelling-Book" the only elementary book to be had then, and it is doubtful whether there is any much better now for the double purpose of teaching reading and spelling conjointly

Many million copies were sold, more than any other book except the Bible. Noah Webster has justly been styled "Our National School Master". Waldo's mind became gradually weaker until he grew dangerously insane and was taken to the asylim at StauntonVa. and died.

Esther was born August 28, 1828. In the autumn of 1852 her father took her and the six younger brothers to West Union where he with others were starting an academy, having employed a teacher, Stephen T W Potter of Scott, N Y to take charge of it. Franklin and Chapin two cousin also boarded with them in a two-roomed house belonging to a Mr Hickman. Esther had prior to this taught a select school in the hewed log house where in connection with a two story cabin William had raised his family. Two years previously, in 1859 he had built a brick house in which his wife died June 20, 1852 and he Nov. 9, 1861.

In the spring of 1856 Esther with three brothers Silas, Judson and Preston went to Alfred Academy in New York. After attending school a term or two she taught a select school near Alfred Center. On Nov. 27, 1857 she married Le Roy Burdick as his second wife. She tenderly cared for his children and raised her own, one of whom became the wife of Rev.G.W.Kenyon and a son named for her father William and for his father LeRoy, became the pastor of the First Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church. Esther died Feb, 20, 1905.

Ezra, the fourth child and second son, was born May 30, 1836. He was the oldest of the six boys who went with Esther to the school at West Union. Before the purpose of establishing an academy was abandoned Ezra taught a term or two there. In 1854 he bargained with his father for the "upper place" but was taken down with the typhoid fever and died June 22, 1854, twenty days after his mothers death.

Lydia was born Jan. 4,1832 and died August 24, 1837 before the subject of these biographic sketches was one year old

Silas was born July 3, 1833. During an epidemic of scarlet fever he became deaf in one ear. After attending the proposed academy at West Union in which Elder Azor Estee taught, Silas went with Eld. Estee to Petersburg, N.Y. where the Elder owned a afrm. Silas remained there less than two years and returned to his fathers home, and in the spring of 1856 went with Esther, Judson and Preston to the Alfred school. There he became acquainted with miss Emily ann Lusk of Dannsville, N.Y. and they were married at her home Dec. 2,1862. In Jan 1864 he enlisted in the Civil War and served to its close and drew a pension the rest of his life. Returning to West Virginia he built a school house, bought property and prepared to build a home but sold out and went to Farina, Ill. bought some lots, built a home and was a constituent member of the S.D.B.Church there. He took up a soldiers claim in California. After perfecting his claim he sold it and returned to Farina where his wife died Feb.21,1913. He lived a short time in soldiers homes for treatment of his eyes which were failing him. But his children of whom he had five looked well after him taking special care of him as his sight and hearing failed and he quietly passed away Dec.1, 1915.

Judson the seventh child, the fourth son, was born Dec 21, 1834. He inherited from his mother especially a quiet, amiable, religious disposition and early in life gave his heart to God under the influence of Elder Azor Estee. He was one of three brothers who went with Esther in the spring of 1856 to Alfred Academy. After about three years of study there he went to New Jersey and taught a term of school and later attended a school at Quincy, Penn. taught by Lucien R Swinney and his sister Miss Ellen Swinney where Eld. Azor Estee was endeavoring to establish an academy. Those three brothers, Silas, Judson and Preston, who went with Esther

FITZRANDOLPHE.

EDWARD FITZRANDOLPHE.

Mr. Lothrop says, "the young Master Fitzrandolphe" built in 1636, the 38th house constructed in Scituate. Having provided himself with a home he married, May 10, 1637, Elizabeth,* daughter of Dea. Thomas Blossom of the Leyden and Plymouth churches. He joined Mr. Lothrop's church in Scituate May 14, 1637, and his wife joined at Barnstable Aug. 27, 1643.

He sold his house in that town to Dea. Richard Sealis, and removed in the spring of 1639 to Barnstable, and built a house on his lot containing eight acres, bounded east by the road to Hyannis, which separated it from the homelot of Roger Goodspeed, and land probably then afterwards town commons, and on the west by the homelot of George Lewis. This land is now owned by the heirs of Anna Childs, Dea. John Munroe and others. He also owned a garden spot and two acres of meadow on the north of the County road, now owned by Capt. Foster, Ebenezer Bacon, Esq., and others, two lots in the Old Common Field, one of two, and the other of three acres, and ninety-two rods in the Calves Pasture. This property he sold June 2, 1649, to Elder John Chipman, by a deed witnessed by William Casely, Henry Cobb and Richard Church.† This deed is recorded in the Colony records, and is printed in the 12th volume of the records, pages 180 and 181. I have in my possession another deed of the same

*In my notice of the Blossom family I inadvertantly omitted to name this daughter of Dea. Thomas Blossom.

‡Richard Church, born in 1608, was a carpenter, and only a temporary resident in Barnstable. He probably came to Massachusetts in the fleet with Gov. Winthrop in 1630. He removed from Weymouth to Plymouth, and was admitted a freeman 4th Oct. 1632. He sold his estate in Plymouth in 1649, stopped in Barnstable some little time, was at Charlestown in 1643, and finally set down at Hingham, and died at Dedham in 1648. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Warren, and had Joseph; Benjamin 1639, (the renowned soldier) Richard, Caleb, Nathaniel, Hunah 1646, Abigail, Charles, Deborah 1657, and perhaps Mary, The dwelling house of Gen. Benjamin Church was at Fall River, and was taken down not many years since. It stood near the present dwelling house of Col. Richard Borden.

property, in the hand writing of Gov. Hinckley, acknowledged before him Aug. 13, 1669, and witnessed by his wife Mary Hinckley and Peter Blossom. In this deed it is stated that the property was sold to John Chipman in 1649. Why two deeds of the same property were given, I am unable to explain.

Soon after 1649, John Chipman sold this lot to John Davis, and Jan. 14, 1658, the latter sold six acres thereof to Samuel Norman, reserving two acres at the north end on which his house then stood. Feb. 26, 1665, Norman reconveyed this land to Davis, with his house thereon. The portion owned by Norman, is now known as Norman's Hill.

In 1649, Edward Fitzrandolphe removed to his farm in West Barnstable, "a double great lot," containing 120 acres of upland, bounded north by the meadows, east by the Bursley farm, south by the commons, and west by the lands of Mr. Thomas Dexter. On the north he had twenty-three acres of salt meadow, bound west by the lands of Mr. Thomas Dexter, on the north bounded partly by the marsh of William Dexter, partly by the common meadows, and partly by the "Committees Creek, so called," east by the upland of Mr. John Bursley, and south by his own land. This tract is now known as the Bodfish and Smith farms. In 1669 he and several families from the Cape removed to New Jersey. In Oct. 1683 his widow was living at New Piscataqua, New Jersey.

He is called in deeds a yeoman, or farmer, and does not appear to have been employed in any official station. He had received a good education for those times, and as Mr. Lothrop styles him "Master" he probably belonged to a good family. He came probably from the west of England.

His farm at West Barnstable he sold partly to John Crocker, Sen'r, partly to Abraham Blush, who afterwards sold to Crocker, and the eastern portion to Rev. John Smith, whose descendants still enjoy it.

His children born in Barnstable were:

I. Nathaniel, baptized Aug. 9, 1640, buried at Barnstable Dec. 10, 1640.

II. Nathaniel, baptized May 15, 1642, married Nov. 1662, Mary, daughter of Joseph Holway, or Holloway, of Sandwich, and had 1, John, 1st Feb. 1662-3; and 2, Isaac, 7th Dec. 1664. No other children recorded. He probably removed with his father in 1669.

III. Mary, baptized Oct. 6, 1644, died young.

IV. Hannah, baptized April 23, 1648. The town record says, "born April 1949," an error. She married 6th Nov. 1668, Jasper Taylor.

V. Mary, baptized June 2, 1650, (town record, "last of May
